The Archbishop's Annual Appeal (AAA) is the "bread and butter" fundraiser for ongoing Archdiocesan ministries and programs. Funds donated in a given year are used in that year for the good works and activities of the Archdiocese, as well as for funding of many local charities. An accounting of the allocation and disbursement of AAA funds is made annually and may be found on the Archdiocese of Hartford's website.

Donations made to the AAA are NEVER used for legal fees, settlements, or administrative costs.

You will receive a year-end statement showing your tax deductible AAA donation for the year that will serve as your tax donation receipt.
